LESSON OF THE BUTTERFLY.

Beautiful butterfly, dressed so fine,
Why do you bask in the warm sunshine?
Who taught you to change from an ugly worm
To a creature so gay, in fairy form?
The butterfly answered, with bated breath:
"I am gay for a day then I change through death.
The power that bade me come up higher
Is the fountain of life's eternal fire—
That lives the same in seraph or clod—
The infinite life which you call God.

For a year I toiled and dug and spun;
Now I glory a day and my race is run.
This lesson I leave to you, my friend;
The glory of worm-life is the day it must end;
In apotheosis, at the dawn,
When worm-life dies and the soul lives on.
So live, while you wear your crysalis here,
That your soul may be bright in a higher sphere.

The butterfly's lesson was not in vain;
We are all like worms on this earthly plane,
Who toil for a season, then fade and die,
To arise in fairer forms on high.
Who can say that the lowly soul,
From worm to wings had reached its goal?
Was it not a speck of the infinite power
That gives us our immortal dower?
What if we find in heaven's glow
All beautiful things we loved below,
All brighter grown, and doubly dear
For having shared our worm-life here?

J. MARION GALE.

THE NEXT PROGRESSIVE STEPS.

I do not pretend to prognosticate the future, but the great progress that has been made in many things in the last 50 years, lead one to think what may be done in the next century. Superstition is straining every nerve to keep its power and increase the ignorance of the people. Doubt is growing fast. Principle in government has surrendered to the mighty god, Wealth, and that god is growing immensely in amount, power, dishonesty and cruelty, and has brought nearly the whole people to bow the knee to it, and not only cast in their mite, but surrender all that is noble and good. Honor, righteousness, nobility and manhood have passed away (except in name) and surrendered. Villainy, rascality and deception have progressed finely. The highly educated and self-wise class have enjoyed a boom. They have brought many theories to the front and proved them by the opinions of the big ones of their class, who, like them, are never wrong, but when these theories are brought to the test of fact and reality, they fade like a June frost. They too have increased greatly and have succeeded wonderfully in enlarging the field of ignorance.

But there is another class that have aimed to make men wise, better and happier. They have studied the action of the Universe, and the cause and effect of these actions. They have adopted the Aristotle principle of reality, and laid aside Plato's ideality; that is, they have acted on reality and fact, and not on imagination.

Through this class all the improvement and progress for the good came. Through this class the raps were first heard and they, to ascertain if there was intelligence behind them, proposed that one rap should represent one word, two another, and so on. They soon learned that there was an intelligence behind, whether it was devil, angel or god, they did not know, but their curiosity drove away their fear, and as they knew that the influence of many was greater than one they united in a circle; and knowing that singing would harmonize the mind, they sung, and that brought them to sympathize on one desire. They were thus brought onto the same plane, and had one desire, that the unseen intelligence would join them and show what it all meant. They soon found they had that intelligence with them by the effect it had on the sensitive.

This they continued at different times, until the intelligence and influence was so great that they could make the sensitive talk and tell all about it, the same as Mesmer had, before that, made his subject tell. The difference was that in one case the intelligence had a human body, and in the other it had not. From this beginning all the vast phenomena and reality of Spiritualism has grown.

A short time before this the intuitive sense or sense of knowledge began to be developed. History

Mrs. Elizabeth Lowe Watson started for the Rochester Jubilee last week. She represents the California State Spiritualists' Association at that meeting, and bears credentials from the State Association for that purpose.

The Spiritual and Ethical Society of New York is composed of enthusiasts, who are very harmonious. Mrs. Brigham is the speaker and is beloved for her spiritual and inspired teachings. We wish she might have thousands to attend her ministrations.

Mrs. D. N. Place has been again elected president of the Ladies' Aid Society of San Francisco, to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mrs. Eager, who found that she could not spare the necessary time to attend to the duties attached to that office. Mrs. Eager was persuaded to accept the vice-presidency.

The Independent Club of Newburyport, Mass., (Dr. C. W. Hidden, grand master) has closed its hall meetings for the season, with all bills paid, money in the treasury, and a snug sum in bank to serve as a nucleus for its building fund. During the summer the Club will unite with the Haverhill Spiritual Union in a series of picnics in the woods and at the seashore.

After the celebration of the Jubilee in Rochester, N. Y., there will be a day's love-feast in Buffalo, N. Y. The First Spiritual Society have invited all who can to their Temple on June 3, to hold a special Jubilee. Moses and Mattie Hull are to be installed as pastors of the Society at that time. Dr. J. M. Peebles, Lyman C. Howe, Prof. Lockwood, A. J. Weaver and others are to be there.

Dr. M. A. Pottenger, a powerful magnetic healer, is located at 536 Guerrero St., San Francisco, where he holds classes for spiritual development on Thursday evenings.

Another of the prophetic messages given by Dr. Muehlenbruch was fulfilled last Sunday in the railroad disaster near the mole in Oakland, when the engineer was seriously scalded, the fireman killed and several passengers slightly injured. The prophecy was briefly stated on page 198 of the JOURNAL, dated March 31, 1898.

"Freedom's Battle Cry," is the title of a patriotic war song, words and music by Arthur Groom, a member of the First Association of Spiritualists of Philadelphia, Pa. It was written under inspiration. It is on the present war with Spain, and both words and music, while entirely original, are filled with that peculiar inspiration found only in the Marseilles, and a few other hymns of the nations. It is destined to be famous. Price 20 cents.

☞ J. C. F. Grumbine will issue on June 1st, the initial number of a new quarterly, entitled, "Immortality."

Psychometry.—Mr. W. H. Terry, the editor of the Australian Harbinger of Light, and a prominent Spiritualist during 40 years, in his issue for April states that he sent for a reading to Dr. Muehlenbruch, and though a complete stranger and 10,000 miles away, the reading "is certainly a demonstration of his lucidity as regards the past, also with regard to our temperament and characteristics," and then adds this endorsement of it:

There are at least eight distinct events in our past life referred to by the Doctor that have never appeared in print, and half of these are not known of by our most intimate friends. We doubt if the few persons who knew of the other half at the time of their occurrence have any recollection of them now, as they occurred many years since. With regard to the future, three incidents are mentioned, all to occur in the present year. We do not make these public lest it might induce some persons to instigate their fulfillment, but if any of them occur we will promptly publish the fact. We may mention, however, a couple of public prophecies with which the reading is supplemented as follows:—"'98 will see for your country peace, good will, and plenty. Also three large discoveries of mining—much prosperity. My country, America, will see dark times, war and much upheaval for '98-99 and most part of 1900, but after a hard struggle she will finally win. The U. S. A. flag will wave over Cuba the last of this year. Now you may not be interested in these prophecies, and why I gave them to you I do not know, but here they are."

We hope the first one may be fulfilled, but would be quite satisfied for the second to miscarry.

The Secret of Life, or Harmonic Vibration, by Prof. Francis King, is awakening great interest and is spoken of in the highest terms by advanced critics of all schools of thought.

It teaches how to cultivate and use the Electric and Magnetic Forces of the body, How to fully develop the Muscular System and Nerve Energy without mechanical means (the only natural method of physical culture), How to acquire Grace, Beauty of Face, Figure and Expression, How to possess Robust Health and Great Mental Vigor, Natural Voice Culture and Artistic Deep Breathing, A systematic course for developing Passivity and Concentration, and unfoldment of the Subjective Powers.

It is a $2.00 book. To any purchaser who desires it, we will present the JOURNAL for one year, if mentioned at the time of ordering the book.

A Psychic Traces Train Robbers.

TO THE EDITOR:

For several weeks following the Sheep Camp express robbery, the robbers went nearly every night to where the money was buried, until they finally concluded to move it near San Francisco. They had removed it from the sacks, placing it in a tin box, and had buried it at one end of a culvert on the railroad, a short distance from San Francisco. The place where the sacks were afterwards found, was not the place where the money was buried. The sacks were empty when buried.

Brady was the most deceptive of the two, as the following will show. He went to a place where the money was buried, emptied it in a satchel, boarded a vessel as a stow-away, thinking it a coasting vessel, but which proved to be a fishing vessel, and was brought back to San Francisco. There he met Browning, who had discovered his duplicity, and together they started north, leaving the train at Redding. A detective boarded and went through the train there. They pursued their way on horses towards Portland, Ore. After they had ridden their horses down, they traded them to a rancher in Oregon for ponies.

On arriving at Portland, they sought a gambling-house, losing considerable money there. Then, after a few days, they proceeded by train East. After leaving the Dalles, and on the next train following them, were two detectives looking for them.

While still west of the Colorado Junction, Browning said to Brady, "What time will we get to Cheyenne?" Brady told him that they would get there before morning. After some little time had elapsed, Browning said: "Ab, what time did you say that Uncle Frank's funeral takes place to-morrow?" Ab answered: "At 10 o'clock to-morrow." Browning said: "Then we will get there in plenty of time." Instead of going to Cheyenne, they got off at Colorado Junction. Having disposed of their valises, we find them inside a freight car going towards Denver. They went to Boulder first, and from thence to Denver, staying a few days in a place; and after returning again to San Francisco, they planned and attempted the robbery near Marysville, with the results known to the world.

I followed these robbers, by psychic power, at that time, and now relate the result to the world.

Human Life.

Life, thou art a mystery;
Sweet flowers, year by year,
Will scatter fragrance to the wind
And leave their ashes here.

Why speak of death? for over all
The veil of sleep must come;
We shall awake somewhere, some day,
When earthly toil is done.

The flowers cast their fragrance forth
Far out upon the wind,
Perhaps that very fragrance was
The essence of a mind.

There is a mighty soul somewhere
That formed the sea and land,
And all the flowers, and mighty trees,
And rocks and mountains grand.

Perhaps our soul the fragrance is
Of this poor mortal frame,
And if it floats out into space
It speeds from whence it came.

It is but fair to reason thus;
Since everything in life
Gives evidence of living on,
E'en though its form be dust.

Meadow Lark.

Scent of violet, mignonette,
Breathing sweetness on the air,
Wafted from my garden and
A thousand blossoms fair;
Hum of insects' busy chant,
While I in rapture hark
To the echo of the music
Of the spring-time meadow-lark.

Ah! the meadow-lark's sweet singing
Brings to view the long ago,
When we were happy lovers,
Free from every shade of woe,
When I bent my head to listen
To your accents fond and true,
And I told you of my heart-love
That was beating all for you.

Ah! the meadow-lark is singing,
Vibrant is all the air,
And I bow my head in silence
And rise on wings of prayer;
And on waves of music wafted
To the gates of light above,
I feel again your presence
And the glory of your love.

Hum of insects, scent of roses,
All the earth is now aglow,
And I mount on wings seraphic
To the scenes of long ago,
While my heart beats gladly, and life
No longer seems so dark
As I hear the soft repeated songster—
The springtime meadow-lark.

The LIGHT of EGYPT

—or—

The Science of the Soul and of the Stars.

In Two Parts, by an Initiate in Esoteric Masonry

Eight Full-Page Engravings.

This book contains information upon the vital points of Occultism and Theosophy.

It claims to fully reveal the most recondite mysteries of man upon every plane of his existence, both here and hereafter, in such plain, simple language that a child can almost understand it.

The secrets and Occult mysteries of Astrology are revealed and explained for the first time, it is affirmed, since the days of Egyptian Hieroglyphics. An effort is made to show that the Science of the Soul and the Science of the Stars are the twin mysteries which comprise THE ONE GRAND SCIENCE OF LIFE.

The following are among the claims made for the work by its friends: To the spiritual investigator this book is indispensable. To the medium it reveals knowledge beyond all earthly price, and will prove in real truth a guide, philosopher and friend. To the Occultist it will supply the mystic key for which he has been so long earnestly seeking. To the Astrologer it will become a divine revelation of Science.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Address all letters, communications and remittances to Thomas G. Newman, 1765 Market St., (Number changed from 1429) San Francisco, Cal. Your name, post-office and State should be stated in every letter.

Remit by Money Order, Registered Letter or Bank Draft on Chicago or New York. Never send Coins in letters; they wear holes in the envelope and may be lost.

Subscribers should invariably state the name of the postoffice to which their JOURNALS are sent. Serious delays often follow a disregard of this. Among a large number of subscribers it is difficult to find a name, without knowing the address.

Subscribers wishing the PHILOSOPHICAL JOURNAL stopped at the expiration of their subscription should give notice to that effect otherwise the publisher will consider it their wish to have it continued.

Obituary Notices are accepted as NEWS to the extent of 5 lines. Ten cents per line for all over 5 lines.

Advertisements which appear fair and honorable upon their face are accepted, and whenever it is shown that dishonest or improper persons are using our advertising columns, they are at once excluded.

Spiritualists who have anything to advertise should use the columns of the PHILOSOPHICAL JOURNAL. This will not only help them, but also assist the JOURNAL in its presentation of the spiritual philosophy to the world, while it holds up the light for those who walk in darkness. We invite correspondence from all legitimate advertisers.

For a Club of 4 subscribers for one year with $4 to pay for them, we will present a copy of Mrs. Schlesinger's handsome volume with 57 portraits and biographies, entitled "Workers in the Vineyard," also containing an interesting history of Spiritualism.

We make this very enticing offer to encourage missionary work and pay those who do it, as well as to help spread the light and truth. You can give your friends a chance to learn about our glorious philosophy, and at the same time get this $2.50 book for yourself, and any premium offered in the JOURNAL to each subscriber.

DRS. PEEBLES and BURROUGHS,

SPECIALISTS IN

CHRONIC DISEASES.

DR. J. M. PEEBLES.

A REMOVAL.

Twice, since moving to Indianapolis, we have been compelled to increase our office-room and facilities. At the present time, and for a year and a half past, we have been located in one of the largest and finest office buildings in the city. The amount of room occupied therein has been increased from time to time until now our offices are very extensive; notwithsanding this they are inadequate to our present needs and it has been necessary for myself to maintain separate offices in a different part of the city, as desirable accommodations in connection with our offices were not obtainable.

Moreover—much of our work has had to be done in different parts of the city, for lack of office-room. This has made the careful conduct of our work very difficult, and a location where the concentration of our offices and all our work is possible has become necessary.

This has made a change from the present office building, where our principal offices are located, imperative.

We now have a large building, which is devoted exclusively to our offices. We have ample room adjoining to enlarge this building from time to time as our work may necessitate.

Our location and accommodations are unsurpassed. We now have the largest and finest offices in the United States, devoted exclusively to the treatment of chronic diseases.

It is a matter of pride, to Spiritualists, that among their number should be found the physicians having these accommodations, and especially so that their old friend and champion, Dr. J. M. Peebles, is the one to achieve this wonderful success. It is a demonstration of the fact that the public, generally, are commencing to realize and appreciate the advantages which a Psychic Physician possesses. It is a recognition of merit and thorough medical and scientific education, supplemented by wonderful psychic gifts. Our practice is not limited to adherents of Spiritualism, in fact, a large number of our patients are members of orthodox churches.
